

A merchant in Edna has changed from the credit business to a strictly cash business. In his announcement he says: "We feel that it is unfair to sell to cash customers at the same price that we do to customers who buy on time, some of whom seem unable to distinguish between time and eternity." —Chetopa (Kans.) Evidently No Friend of Borghum's.
"That political rival of yours is to be congratulated. He is always in the public eye." "Yes," replied Senator Borghum; "like a locomotive chuffer."

Down in their hearts wise men know this truth: The only way to help yourself is to help others.—Elbert Hubbard.

Mr. Starbuck Interviewed.

"I have voted for 17 presidents." "Were they all elected?" "No, I lost six." The speaker was Milton Starbuck of Jasper, who says he is in his 89th year. He was in Sarcoxie Wednesday with some relatives visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kirkpatrick.

Asked whether he voted for the present president, he shook his head and smiled.

"No, I went off to Teddy," he said, "but I think Wilson is a good man, a much better man than some presidents we've had. Andy Johnson and Jim Buchanan were not much force; there are lots of women living today who would do better than these and some others we've had."

Mr. Starbuck is quite an active old man. The brightness has not left his eye and his natural vigor of body lacks a great deal of being abated. He laughs easily and says he never was in a fight in his whole life.

He was born in 1825 and cast his first vote in 1848—Sarcoxie Record.

"Bakes alive!" exclaimed the Stork, upon meeting the little God of Love crying bitterly. "What is the matter, Dan?" "The m-m-m-matter," sobbed Cupid, "is that Cupidity is making twice as many matches as I am! Uh-wah! hah! ha-a-a-h!"—Judge.

Origin of the Name "Manhattan."
It is gravely given as an historical fact that Peter Minuit and his company bought all of Manhattan Island for the sum of $24 after having reduced the owners to a state of intoxication. It is also stated as true that the Indians after that bit of costly debauchery, gave to the island the name of Manhattan, which it is said was Indian for "the island of blissful intoxication."
